

North Platte Natural Resources District Drought Planning Timeline

Your Role:

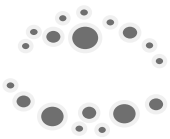

Individual meeting with NPNRD representative - discuss possible benefits of planning process

Your Time:

1 hour

Stakeholder Recruitment

February 2017

Introduction to Drought Planning

March

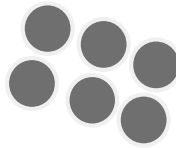

Attend full group meeting – NPNRD presents logistics of planning process

1-2hrs

Defining Drought Problems

March

Participate in small group discussion – individual sector groups define drought-related impacts and vulnerabilities

3-5hrs

Sharing Organizational Boundaries

April

Participate in full group meeting – organizations/groups present drought-related organizational capacities and limitations

2-3hrs

Cross-Sector Learning

April

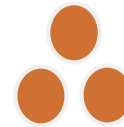

Participate in small group discussion – mixed sector groups explain their diverse drought-related problems

3-5hrs

Creating Solutions

May

Participate in small group discussion – mixed sector groups create mitigation and response strategies for drought-related vulnerabilities and impacts

3-5hrs

Plan Development

June

Contribute to planning group – each sector chooses a representative who helps write the final drought plan

2-3hrs

Plan Development

July 2017

Contribute to planning group – each sector chooses a representative who helps write the final drought plan

2-3hrs